SIR

PW

I have the honour to invite your attention to Rule XI of the Rules for Damodar Das Scholarships published with Government Notification No 754C-Ed 709-09-1 dated the 28th February 1910 under which the stipend of each scholarship for each quarter after the 1st can be paid only on a bill countersigned by the Head of the Institution and a certificate that the student is in regular attendance at the Institution and that his conduct and progress are satisfactory The existing practice is different in as much as the payment of the quarterly stipends on due dates is once for all instructed The same rule (XI) also existed in the old rules but the fact that it has been reiterated in the revised rules mentioned above implies that Government wish the rule to be enforced It is therefore a question whether it is not now time for changing the existing practice to the one prescribed by the rule

2 This change will of course necessitate the authorisation of the payment in future of such scholarships separately for each quarter on bills countersigned by H a s of Institutions con-concerned, accompanied by the needful certificates, and until Rule XI is changed, I propose adopting the procedure prescribed therein

3 Another matter which is not in the Rules but which exists in practice is to make advances to scholars for their equipment to the journey to foreign countries In some cases, Government sanction such advances, but in others they are paid on your instructions But as this latter procedure is not right from a strictly audit point of view, I request that, in all future cases in which such advances are desired, you will be so good as to invariably obtain sanction of Government or if you deem it necessary to have the rules so altered as to allow of such advance being given without Government sanction

4 As the above questions are met with almost every day in the course of audit in my Office, I request you will favour me with an early reply as to how you propose to deal in the matter

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
